On behalf of the Editorial Board of Scientific Letters, I would like to extend our sincere appreciation to all reviewers who generously contributed their time and expertise throughout 2025. Their thoughtful evaluations, scientific rigor, and constructive feedback have been fundamental to maintaining the journal's high editorial standards. The peer-review process relies on the dedication of specialists who carefully assess manuscripts and provide insightful guidance to authors. This year, we were once again privileged to work with a highly committed community of reviewers whose professionalism and punctuality ensured an efficient, transparent, and fair editorial process. Their contributions not only strengthened individual manuscripts but also enhanced the overall scientific quality and international visibility of Scientific Letters. On behalf of the entire Editorial Team, we warmly thank all our reviewers for their invaluable support and look forward to continued collaboration and shared success in 2026.
